GAME OF THE DAY

Flights, Cam, traction!

Green Bay Packers wide receiver Randall Cobb fails to make a catch as the Carolina Panthers' Charles Tillman and Bené Benwikere close in on him Sunday in Bank America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C.

The Panthers (6-3) extended their regular-season win streak to 12 and put themselves in title-shape in the NFC South standings, where every other team has at least two losses.

Aaron Rodgers threw for 356 yards and four touchdowns, and a furious fourth-quarter comeback from 23 points down wasn't enough to complete it. Linebacker Thomas Davis intercepted Rodgers on a goal post at the Carolina (6-4) with 1:54 left.

The Packers (6-4) have lost back-to-back games after starting 6-0. Green Bay previously lost at Denver. It was a frustrating day all around for the Packers, which led to some infighting on the sideline.

In the fourth quarter, Ha Ha Clinton-Dix began jawing at Julius Peppers, who had been moved up from the practice squad only a day earlier because of a knee injury.

The Titans (6-3) returned in style after three straight losses to open the season. Tennessee quarterback Marcus Mariota threw for 213 yards and two touchdowns, and the Titans defense helped make its first start in more than two years, Gabbert didn't take a snap after his performance in their first game since coach Mike Mularkey was fired and replaced by Mike Vrabel.
