Refugee: Ali is one of six refugees from Syria in Oregon

The Oregon Department of Human Services says it has only one Syrian refugee listed as receiving temporary government financial aid. The department cannot legally name that person, spokesman Gene Evans says.

Ali, however, says he is occurring.

The trek from Syria to a new home in a state country has taken him for eight months of waiting in Turkey. The process has included "condemned" and "broad reviews" of officials who screen refugees and try to live them up with host coun-
